D O letter of the 27th October '98 from the Inspr Genl of Educa ion in Mysore inviting an expression from the Registrar of applicants for the Engineering scholarships of 1899 and recommending with the concurrence of the Chief Engineer the grant of a scholarship of 30 Rs per mensem to each of the candidates named in the annexure, tenable for three years from 1st January 1900 at the Engineering College, Madras

Order thereon No 5176-98 Ed FT-98, dt 30/10/98

Of the candidates recommended by the Inspr Genl, the case of C Pangaiya & P A Narasimhengar seems unexceptionable and he may accordingly be given a scholarship. Of the remaining two, Agesha Rao should be directed to produce a fresh medical certificate before he is given a scholarship, as the one produced by him is not over be accepted

The age of C Pangaiya is put down at 21 or 23. His correct age is not is left in doubt which must be cleared up requiring the production of his horoscope. If the maximum age for admission is, as stated by the Inspr Genl in the D O, read above, 22, his candidature cannot be admitted unless it is proved that his age is within the limit Before awarding him the scholarship proposed, the Inspr Genl should satisfy himself on the latter point

2 Adverting to the delay in the submission of the present reference, it is observed that the notification inviting applications was issued in May/99 The applications now submitted with a D O marked "Very urgent" , were all received by the Inspr Genl before the close of the same month They have thus been delayed in his office for more than 4 months The attention of the Inspr Genl is drawn to para 2 of this office Demi-Official letter of the 16th July 1898 which he was requested to submit his proposals for the award of the scholarships in question in sufficient time to admit of Govt passing orders thereon after careful consideration
